

Ideas for Using These Exemplars

- Read and discuss with colleagues (in a department meeting, professional development sessions or PLCs.) Share your thoughts and ideas about implications for instruction.
- Post on a bulletin board to display expectations of writing standards with students and parents.
- Use as a model of standards-based writing.
- Include in communications sent home to parents and guardians to illustrate proficient standards-based writing.