

POEM REVIEW

FIRST PARAGRAPH:

What makes a good poem? CRITERIA

1.

2.

3.

4. Title (italicized) and author of the poem that you think is good and summation of why. (example: Mother to Son by Langston Hughes is an excellent poem that is like music to the listener's ears with its use of rhyme and repetition; it also shares with its readers an important idea about life and uses a clever extended metaphor to do so.)

PARAGRAPH 2: Detailed explanation with quotation from poem of first thing that makes it a good poem.

PARAGRAPH 3: Detailed explanation with quotation from poem of second thing that makes it a good poem.

PARAGRAPH 4: Detailed explanation with quotation from poem of third thing that makes it a good poem.

PARAGRAPH 5: Say it again. Why is this a great poem? Relate it to you: how did the poem affect you, make you feel, make you think. Make a recommendation.